

9:50	Conference opening Daiva Baltriukienė, President of Balt-LASA
10:00	Do we know our legacy? – laboratory animals derived in Central Europe Marta Gajewska, PolLASA, Poland
10:45	Neuron-specific phospholipid scramblase knock-outs to investigate synaptic pruning Urtė Neniškytė, Vilnius University, Lithuania
11:30	Doctors safetrain - the joint universities centre for safe medical training and research Rihards Čerņevskis, Doctors Safe Train Fond, The Joint Universities Center for Safe Medical Training&Research, Latvia
12:15	Lunch
13:30	Preclinical models for eye diseases Symantas Ragauskas, UAB Experimentica, Lithuania
14:15	Different paths – the same virulence: experimental study on avian malaria infections Vaidas Palinauskas, Nature Research Center, Lithuania
14:45	Regenerative potential of in vitro modulated mesenchymal stromal cells in a mouse model of a full-thickness skin wound Aušra Liubavičiūtė, Centre for Innovative Medicine, Lithuania
15:15	Coffee break
15:45	Dichloroacetate and salinomycin exert a synergistic cytotoxic effect in vitro and in vivo Aistė Skeberdytė, Vilnius University, Lithuania
16:15	Ankrd1 kinetics in mice with dilated cardiomyopathy Ieva Rinkūnaitė, Vilnius University, Lithuania
16:45	An introduction to FELASA. 40 years 1978-2018 Daiva Baltriukienė, President of Balt-LASA
17:00	Closing remarks